LAMAR POINT – EMBERSON – CAVINESS
VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT and COMMUNITY CENTER
6612 FM 1500 PARIS, TEXAS

BY-LAWS
OF THE
LAMAR POINT – EMBERSON – CAVINESS
VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT AND COMMUNITY CENTER

WHEREAS, certain regulations are necessary for the good order and well being of all associations, in order to define the duties, to establish discipline for the maintenance of harmony, and for the full promotion of the object for which we are associated together, we do ordain and adopt the following By-Laws for our regulation and governance, and do hereby pledge ourselves to cheerfully submit to the legally expressed will of the majority, and to support our Officers in the discharge of their duties.

.ARTICLE I: Name and Purpose

.Section 1. Name

The name of the fire department shall be the Lamar Point-Emberson-Caviness Volunteer Fire Department. The community center shall be named the Lamar Point-Emberson-Caviness Community Center.

.Section 2. Goals of Organization

The goals of the fire department shall be the saving of lives, the protection of property endangered by fires and other disasters, and to promote the teaching and practice of fire prevention and protection. The goal of the community center is to promote activities that will bring the three communities of Lamar Point, Emberson and Caviness together.

.Section 3. Purpose of Organization

Said organization is organized for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

.Section 4. Powers of Organization.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payment and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not be conducted for any purpose not permitted to be conducted (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The nomination of Officers shall be at the November regular meeting.

.Section 4. Election of Officers

Officers shall be elected at the December regular meeting.

.Section 5. Assumption of Office

Officers elected at the December regular meeting will assume office at the January regular meeting.

.Section 6. Drills and Training Meetings

There shall be, weather permitting, at least one drill or training meeting per month. Drills or training meetings will be in addition to the regular meeting, but may follow or precede the regular meeting. Each Active Firefighter must attend a minimum of six (6) drills or training meetings per year. Drills or training meetings are to be conducted by the Training Officer or other person appointed by the Fire Chief, may consist of simulated fires in an approved location, video programs, or truck operation training. Drills or training may be conducted in conjunction with other volunteer fire departments.

.Section 7. Annual Budget Meetings

The Officers shall propose an annual budget between the January and February meetings and present it to the membership at the February meeting for approval.

.Section 8. Public Emergencies or Natural Disasters

In the event a public emergency or natural disaster makes the holding of an in-person meeting unlawful or impossible, the organization may conduct its meetings by electronic or other remote access means as reasonably necessary for the duration of the emergency or disaster.

- a. The organization shall use its best efforts to implement any such virtual meetings with full regard for the need to maintain as much as possible accessibility for all members, including those with disabilities and those who lack the access to sophisticated technology.
- b. Any action that could be taken at an in-person meeting, including amendment of the by-laws, may also be taken at a virtual meeting held pursuant to this provision.
- c. Any action taken at any such virtual meeting shall be ratified at the first regular in-person meeting.
- d. During a virtual meeting, the Secretary shall ensure that all participants are on the Membership Voting Roster and that a quorum is present.
- e. The President or the Fire Chief shall determine the need for a virtual meeting.
- f. If there is a vote, the Secretary shall make a record of the vote and ensure that every voter is sufficiently identified and his name is on the Membership Voting Roster.

.ARTICLE IV: Officers

.Section 1. Officers

The administrative officers of the Organization shall consist of a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Parliamentarian.

The operational officers of the Organization shall consist of a Fire Chief, one or more Assistant Fire Chiefs, a Training Officer, and a Safety Officer. If there are fewer than four (4) qualified individuals available as operational officers the qualified individuals shall draw lots to determine which offices each shall hold and which duties each shall perform.

.Section 2. Term of Office

Officers elected at an annual election shall serve one year and will begin their duties at the January meeting. Officers elected at a special election or appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve until the next annual election.

.Section 3. Multiple Offices

The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. No person shall hold more than one of the other offices if any other member is qualified and willing to hold that office.

.Section 4. Technical Requirements

To hold the office of Chief, Assistant Chief, Training or Safety officer the individual must be an Active Firefighter of the Department. All Operational Officers must hold a basic professional certification from SFFMA. Some offices, by State or Federal law or regulation, may be required to hold additional certificates.

.Section 5. Eligibility

Any Member who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Organization or more than twenty five (25) percent of the meetings in any one year without excuse such as personal illness, work, illness or death in family is not eligible to hold an Administrative Office the following year.

.Section 6. Vacancies

a. Administrative Officers:

- i. If an Administrative Officer, other than the President, is unable to perform his duties and six months or more remain until the next election, a special election shall be held at the first possible meeting; if less than six months remain until the next election, the President with agreement from the Fire Chief, shall appoint a Member to finish the term of office. If the President and the Fire Chief do not agree on an appointment to fill a vacancy, a special election shall be held at the first possible meeting to elect an Officer to fill the vacancy.
- ii. If the President is permanently unable to perform his duties and less than six months remain before the next election, the Assistant Chiefs will draw lots to determine which will assume the duties of the President.
- iii. If the President is not available to chair a meeting, the Fire Chief shall be the acting chairman; if neither is available, the acting chairman shall be next available officer in the following line of succession: Treasurer, Assistant Fire Chief, Secretary, Training Officer, Parliamentarian, Safety Officer. If no officers are available, the membership shall elect a temporary chairman for the meeting.

b. Operational Officers

If an Operational Officer is unable to perform his duties and six months or more remain, a special meeting of the Active Firefighters shall be held to elect a replacement officer. If less than six months remain, the remaining Operational Officers shall collectively appoint an Active Firefighter to finish the term.

.Section 7. Compensation

No officer shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Department or Organization, however this shall not prevent an officer from winning a Competitive Bid or receiving Active Firefighter Compensation.

.ARTICLE V: Duties of Administrative Officers

.Section 1. President

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Organization; he shall sign all resolutions, orders and summons of the Organization; as well as Amendments to the By-Laws. The President shall do such other things as the Organization may direct.

.Section 2. Secretary

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of all Organization business; shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all regular and special meetings; keep a record of all fire alarms, meetings, drills, and other activities of the Organization showing a list of those in attendance; keep appropriate current records showing the Active Firefighters and Members together with their addresses. The Secretary shall be in charge of all official correspondence. The Secretary shall maintain a bank safe deposit box for important documents with the second key held by the President.

.Section 3. Treasurer

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of the Organization's finances. The Treasurer shall have the authority to collect all monies due the Organization and shall keep a record of the same. The Treasurer shall render an annual report of all monies received and disbursed during the year and submit his books to the proper committee for inspection when called for. The Treasurer shall comply with all Federal and State tax laws. The Treasurer shall pay no order or account unless certified by the Members for any amount over $250.00. Any maintenance expense over $250.00 must be approved by two or more officers excluding the Treasurer and must be presented at the next meeting. In the presence of the Treasurer, the books shall, during reasonable business hours, be available for inspection by the members.

.Section 4. Parliamentarian

Meetings shall be conducted under Robert's Rules of Order. It shall be the duty of the Parliamentarian to maintain a current copy of Robert's Rules of Order and refer to them as necessary during meetings.

.ARTICLE VI: Duties of Operational Officers

.Section 1. Fire Chief

It shall be the duty of the Fire Chief:

- (a) to assume full charge of all persons, apparatus, and equipment at conventions, fire or other emergencies requiring the services of the Department.
- (b) to call out any and all Active Firefighters and apparatus for any purpose incidental to his office.
- (c) to assume full responsibility for all fire equipment and see to its proper care and maintenance.
- (d) to recommend the purchase of new equipment.
- (e) to see that adequate training programs are conducted in the department and shall acquaint himself with all new fire fighting methods by attending fire schools, drills and conferences.
- (f) to see proper discipline is maintained in the Department.
- (g) to see that a proper record is kept of all fires; the address, the hour and date, the type of occupancy, the name of owner or tenant, the type of building construction, the extent of its spread, and how it was extinguished.
- (h) to report any injury to Active Firefighters or fire equipment.

- (i) to make such reports as provided by law, furnishing a copy of same to the Secretary.

.Section 2. Assistant Fire Chiefs

The Assistant Fire Chiefs shall be under the orders of the Fire Chief, and in his absence shall succeed to his duties and authority in the order of their respective rank.

.Section 3. Training Officer

The Training Officer in cooperation with the Fire Chief shall set up training programs. He shall recommend the purchase of suitable training manuals, textbooks and other instructional material.

.Section 4. Safety Officer

The Safety Officer shall oversee the safety of Active Firefighters at all emergencies and training.

.ARTICLE VII: Probationary Firefighters

.Section 1. Application Procedure

The applicant must submit a completed application. The Operational Officers shall obtain a criminal history background check for the applicant.

The applicant shall not be present:

- When the request is discussed by the Members and Firefighters.
- During the vote to accept or reject the application.

A quorum of Firefighters shall vote to accept or reject an applicant as a Probationary Firefighter.

.Section 2. Probationary Status

If accepted as a Probationary Firefighter, the individual's name shall be added to the Firefighter Voting Roster as a "Probationary Firefighter".

A Probationary Firefighter may not serve as an operational officer.

The Operational Officers shall document the Probationary Firefighter's duties and responsibilities in his personnel file. At a minimum the duties and responsibilities of a Probationary Firefighter shall include the following:
